SOUTH GARDA KARTING - LONATO (BRESCIA, ITALY)

THE FIRST ROUND OF THE AUTUMN TROPHY ON OCTOBER 1ST

All national categories will get on track as the historic 100cc karts that will contest the second round of the KFA season. Free Practice, on Saturday September 30th, Qualifying, Prefinals and Finals on Sunday October 1st.

Lonato del Garda (Brescia, Italy). The longest karting month of the year in Lonato is about to start. October at South Garda Karting will feature five weekends in a row with as many events that are among the most important of the season.

The first appointment is set for October 1st: the opener of the two rounds of the 27th Autumn Trophy, that will be followed by the closer on October 7-8. The Rok Cup International Final will follow on October 11-14, the German Championship DKM will take place one week later on October 20-22 and the Trofeo delle Industrie will close the month on October 27-29.

Meanwhile, entries are flowing in for the 27th Autumn Trophy scheduled for next October 1st. Categories on track are Entry Level, 60 Mini, OK-Junior, KZ2, KZ3 (Junior, Under and Over), KZ4, and the historic karts 100cc that will contest the second round of the KFA season with classes Pre2000 and Pre2000 Heavy.

In KZ2, the starting grid is already packed, and the several times world champion Davide Forè will be among the protagonists on Gold-Tm, as 2015 winner of the Trophy Massimo Dante, who will race on Maranello-Tm. The latter was second in 2016 behind Enrico Bernardotto on CKR-Tm.

Category 60 Mini will also be quite crowded. Interestingly, Francesco Lorandi will make his debut with Baby Race after competing last year in Entry Level.

The program:

Saturday September 30th: Free practice.

Sunday October 1st: Warm-up, qualifying, Prefinals and Finals.
