Lonato del Garda (Brescia, Italy). The 26th edition of the Autumn Trophy, event scheduled in these last two weeks at South Garda Karting, is destined to set a new presence record not only for the track of Lonato.

After the 270 drivers partaking in the first round held last Sunday, even more drivers will be present this coming weekend for the closer of the 2016 Autumn Trophy, race valid also as closing round of the Challenge Rok Cup.

Alongside national categories, that already bring on track about 100 drivers in categories Entry Level, 60 Mini, KZ2, Prodriver Under, Prodriver Over and 125 Club, the Rok Cup categories increased the number of racers on track with some further 170 drivers, that will take this chance to prepare at best the International Rok Cup world event scheduled on this same track on October 22nd.

The highest number of drivers will get on track in Mini Rok (80 drivers), but KZ2 will also have a good starting grid packed with 30 drivers.

Compared to the overall 350 drivers on track in the two rounds of last year's Autumn Trophy, this year's 540 represent a 55% increase. These figures confirm the growth of South Garda Karting and its record numbers for Italian as well as in European races.

Free practice and qualifying are scheduled for Saturday October 8th, while warm-up, heats, Prefinals and Finals will follow on Sunday October 9th with Live TV and Timing services at www.southgardakarting.it.
