A total of 50 Countries have been represented from the 5 Continents in the 5 categories on track: Super Rok, Shifter Rok, Senior Rok, Junior Rok and Mini Rok. The smallest category, Mini Rok, scored a participation record of 162 drivers, but also the other categories have been well represented with 97 drivers contesting Junior, 81 Senior, 43 Shifter and 32 Super.

The spectacle on track has been absolutely top class, with very good races in all categories.

SUPER ROK. In Super Rok Mattia D'Abramo has led the whole Final, but the race has been very lively with D'Abramo chased all the way to the flag by Vittorio Russo, both on Tony Kart-Vortex-Bridgestone. At the chequered flag, the third place went to Giuseppe Gaglianò, also on Tony Kart, who found his way past the South African Sebastian Boyd on Kosmic a few laps to the end of the race. The fifth position went to Alessandro Brigatti (Tony Kart). Mattia D'Abramo had also been protagonist in qualifying, when he posted the second position behind Gaglianò before improving to P1 after heats.

SHIFTER ROK. Danilo Albanese (Tony Kart-Vortex-Bridgestone) dominated Rok Shifter at the end of a nice race that saw him leading Nicola Marcon, also on Tony Kart, and Federico Squaranti on FA. The fourth position was taken by Cristopher Zani (BRM) who led Riccardo Cinti (Tony Kart) and Andrea Tonoli (Maranello), the latter have been protagonists of heats too. The Brazilian former F1 driver Rubens Barrichello has also raced on Tony Kart, but was forced to the retirement due to an incident when three laps were left to go. Despite this epilogue, Barrichello has been very competitive and deserved the applause of fans on grandstands.

SENIOR ROK. Senior Rok has lived a very intense finale, when the three main protagonists on track negotiated the final corner with Domenico Cicognini (Tony Kart-Vortex-Bridgestone), proceeding the Polish driver Maciej Szyszko (Kosmic) and the Swiss Michael Muller (Tony Kart). The three were very close and unfortunately were involved in an incident, and therefore the fourth driver, the Pole Bartosz Mila on Tony Kart, got the most of it and claimed the victory. The second place went to his fellow countryman Kacper Szczurek (Kosmic) and the third to Danny Carenini (Tony Kart). Szyszko ended the race in sixth place, while Muller was handed a 10s time penalty for causing the incident and ended ninth, while Cicognini crossed the finish line in P29 pushing his kart and deserving the fans applause.

JUNIOR ROK. The race of Junior Rok has also been exciting, with Luca Bosco taking the victory leading Leonardo Caglioni who completed a great comeback race from the 14th place of qualifying, and Francesco Sabella, all on Tony Kart-Vortex-Bridgestone. Francesco Raffaele Pizzi (Exprit) claimed a great P4, leading the Australian Broc Feeney (Kosmic) and the Swiss Gabrio Bizzozero (FA).

MINI ROK. A surprising Finale characterized Mini Rok, that has been very spectacular as usual. Following an early domination by the Russian Nikita Bedrin (Tony Kart-Vortex-Bridgestone), the Pole Karol Pasiewicz eventually had the best of his team mate claiming the victory, as the American Connor Zilisch, also on Energy, took P3. Pasiewicz was later on handed a 5s time penalty as the front fairing of his kart was mis-positioned and the victory was therefore inherited by the American Connor Zilisch, while the Russian Bedrin was promoted second and Filippo Croccolino (Righetti Ridolfi) third. This penalty relegated Pasiewicz to the final eighth place.
